

The Karate Kid

Coach is one of the most important person in one's life. A good coach can make his/her disciple great in skills as well as a great human being. In the movie The Karate Kid, this thing is beautifully depicted. Miyagi the coach in the movie teaches his student Daniel the skill of karate, At first Daniel doesn't understand what's the need of this unusual training like washing the car or painting the fence but as a good student Daniel without asking any question and showing full trust in his coach do whatever his coach tells him. This movie tells about an ideal coach and an ideal disciple.
